HARBOUR REGULATION

General and Special Directions

General directions as to the use of the harbour, etc.

4.—(1) The Commissioners may, in accordance with the requirements of article 5, give or amend directions for the purpose of promoting or securing conditions conducive to the ease, convenience or safety of navigation, the safety of persons and the protection or property, flora and fauna in the harbour.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) a direction under this article may apply—

- (a) to all vessels or to a class of vessels; or
- (b) to all persons or to a class of persons; or
- (c) to the whole of the harbour or to a part; or
- (d) at all times or at certain times or at certain states of the tide and every direction under this article shall specify the extent of its application in relation to the matters referred to in sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d).

(3) Subject to paragraph (4) a direction under paragraph (1) may prohibit entry into the harbour by a vessel or class of vessels; but a direction may be given in reliance upon this paragraph only in respect of personal watercraft or in respect of vessels which exceed—

- (a) 62.4 metres LOA; or
- (b) 16 metres beam; or
- (c) 1503 metric tonnes displacement.

(4) A direction in reliance on paragraph (3) may not prohibit entry by an exempt vessel or a class of vessels where at least one vessel within that class is an exempt vessel.

(5) The Commissioners may revoke a direction given under paragraph (1).

(6) In paragraph (3) “LOA” means length overall and in paragraph (4) “exempt vessel” means a vessel which has been in the harbour on one or more occasions prior to the 1st January 2013.

Procedure for giving, amending and revoking general directions

5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (7), if the Commissioners propose to give, amend or revoke a direction under article 4, they must—

- (a) give notice in writing of the proposal to the Chamber of Shipping, the Lymington Harbour Advisory Group, Wightlink Limited (or any successor to Wightlink Limited that operates the ferry service to the Isle of Wight), the Royal Yachting Association and to such other persons as they consider appropriate in respect of the proposal (in this article called “the designated consultees”);
- (b) consult with the designated consultees upon the proposal, including allowing a period of not less than 6 weeks from the date notice has been given by them to those consultees for each of them to make written representations to the Commissioners on the proposal;
- (c) have regard to any representations made by the designated consultees during that consultation;
- (d) give notice in writing to the designated consultees, following the consultation, as to whether the Commissioners propose to proceed with the proposal and, if so, specifying whether they are making any modifications to the proposal and their reasons for so doing; and
- (e) if the Commissioners propose to proceed with the proposal and any of the designated consultees has made representations against the proposal, invite each designated consultee who has made such representations, within 28 days from the date of the notice given to him under sub-paragraph (d) or such longer period as may be specified in that notice, to confirm in writing if he maintains an objection to the proposal.

(2) Where the Commissioners have complied with the requirements of paragraph (1) in relation to a proposal, they may proceed with the proposal if—

- (a) none of the designated consultees have made representations against the proposal;
- (b) none of the designated consultees, having made representations against the proposal, give notice to the Commissioners under paragraph (1)(e) maintaining an objection to the proposal; or
- (c) an objection to the proposal has been maintained but the requirements specified in paragraph (3) have been complied with.

(3) Where a designate consultee has given notice to the Commissioners under paragraph (1)(e) that he maintains an objection to the proposal—

- (a) the issue must be referred to an independent person (“the adjudicator”) to be agreed between the Commissioners and each of the designated consultees maintaining an objection to the proposal or, failing agreement, appointed on the application of any such party by the President of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association;
- (b) the adjudicator must, so far as is reasonably practicable within three months of the referral, first provide a reasonable opportunity for each of the parties to make representations to or be heard by the adjudicator and then make a report in writing to the Commissioners with findings and reasoned recommendations on the issue, a copy of which must also be provided by the adjudicator to each of the other parties; and
- (c) the Commissioners must decide whether to exercise the power to give, amend or revoke the direction having regard to the report and the recommendations contained in the report of the adjudicator (but shall not be bound to give effect to the recommendations) and, once they have so decided, they must give notice in writing to the designated consultees of their decision and of the reasons for that decision.

(4) If the Commissioners wish to exercise the power to give or amend a direction in a form materially different from both the form notified to the parties under paragraph (1)(d) and that recommended by the adjudicator under paragraph (3)(b), they must proceed, unless the designated consultees otherwise agree in writing, as if the proposal is a new proposal to which paragraph (1) applies.

(5) Except as otherwise provided for in paragraph (3), an adjudicator appointed under that paragraph may determine the procedure for the making of representations and the conduct of any hearing under that paragraph.

(6) The costs incurred by the adjudicator and by each of the parties on any referral under paragraph (3) are to be paid by such one or more of the parties to the referral as the adjudicator may direct.

- (b) for the purpose of making temporary provision for an intended activity or operation in the harbour which is expected to commence less than 4 months after the Commissioners are notified of, or otherwise become aware of, it and to last not more than 28 days and if the Commissioners consider it appropriate to make such provision, after taking into account other activities and operations in the harbour which may be affected by it.

(8) Where pursuant to paragraph (7) the Commissioners proceed to give, amend or revoke a direction without complying with paragraphs (1) to (6), they must—

- (a) give notice of the direction, amendment or revocation as soon as is practicable to those persons who would otherwise have been designated consultees had paragraph (1)(a) applied; and
- (b) if the Commissioners propose that—
  - (i) the direction or the amendment of a direction is to continue in force after the expiry of the period of three months from the date of that notice; or
  - (ii) in the case of the revocation of a direction, the revoked direction is not to be given again after the expiry of that period, apply procedures analogous to those specified in paragraphs (1)(b) to (e) and (2) to (6) to the proposal.

Publication of general directions

6.—(1) Notice of the giving of a general direction and of any amendment or revocation of a general direction must, except in an emergency, be published by the Commissioners as soon as practicable once in a newspaper circulating in the locality of the harbour and must state a place at which copies of the direction, amendment or revocation may be inspected.

(2) In an emergency, notice of the giving of a general direction or of the amendment or revocation of a general direction may be given in any manner considered by the Commissioners to be appropriate.

Special directions as to use of the harbour, etc.

7.—(1) The Harbour Master may give a direction for any of the purposes in sub-paragraphs (a) to (i) applying to a vessel within the harbour limits or for any of the purposes in sub-paragraph (a) applying to persons within the harbour limits or all vessels or vessels of a particular class within the harbour limits—

- (iii) it is making an unlawful use of the harbour or interfering with the reasonable use or enjoyment of the harbour by other vessels or persons or the carrying on of business in the harbour;
  - (iv) its removal is necessary to enable maintenance or repair work to be carried out in the harbour or to premises adjacent to the harbour; or

(4) A direction under this article may be given in any manner considered by the Harbour Master to be appropriate and must be addressed to the master where the direction is in respect of or applies to a vessel or vessels.

- (b) a comparable service is already being provided, whether by some other person already licensed under this article, or by the Commissioners which, in the opinion of the Commissioners, adequately meets the needs of potential users; or
- (c) the applicant is unsuitable to hold the licence, whether on account of misconduct by the applicant, an employee or agent of the applicant or (where the applicant is not an individual) by a person in control of or concerned with the management of the applicant, or for any other sufficient reason.

13.—(1) A licence may be granted under article 12 subject to such terms or conditions as the Commissioners think fit including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) conditions—

(3) The adjudicator must, so far as is reasonably practicable within 28 days of the referral, first provide a reasonable opportunity for each of the parties to make representations to or be heard by the adjudicator and then make a report in writing to the Commissioners with findings and reasoned recommendations on whether the licence should be granted and, if so, subject to what terms or conditions or subject to what modifications, a copy of which report must also be provided by the adjudicator to the applicant.

(4) The Commissioners must decide whether to act in accordance with the report and recommendation contained in the report of the adjudicator (but shall not be bound to give effect to the recommendations) and, once they have so decided, they must give notice in writing to the applicant of their decision and of the reasons for that decision.

(2) Where the person on whom a notice or other document to be served for the purposes of this Order is a body corporate, the notice or document is duly served if it is served on the secretary or clerk of that body.

(3) Where the person on whom a notice or other document is to be served has agreed in writing that service may be by email, or other electronic means, the Commissioners may employ this method of service until such time as the person informs them in writing that he is no longer willing to receive notices or documents by email or by other electronic means.

(4) For the purposes of section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978(a) as it applies for the purposes of this article, the proper address of a person in relation to the service on him of a notice or other document under paragraph (1) is, if he has given an address for service, that address, and otherwise—

- (a) in the case of the secretary or clerk of a body corporate, the registered or principal office of that body; and
- (b) in any other case, his last known address at the time of service.

(5) Where for the purposes of this Order a notice or other document is required or authorised to be served on a person whose name and address cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry—

  - (i) addressing it to him by name or by the description of “owner”, or as the case may be “occupier”, of the land (describing it); and
  - (ii) either leaving it in the hands of a person who is or appears to be resident or employed on the land or leaving it conspicuously affixed to some building or object on or near the land;
- (b) in the case of a notice or other document relating to a vessel (including a wreck), it may be served by exhibiting it in a conspicuous position on or near the vessel, or handed to a member of the crew, unless it would not be reasonably practicable to exhibit the notice or other document in this manner, or if the notice or other document would not be likely to be seen if it were so exhibited; and
- (c) in the case of any other notice or other document or a notice or other document that is not capable of being served pursuant to paragraph (5)(b) it may be served by displaying it at the office or the Harbour Master while it is in force.

(6) This article shall not be taken to exclude the employment of service by any other means and is without prejudice to the discretion of the Commissioners under article 6(2) and of the Harbour Master under article 7(4).

Revocation of byelaws

25.—(1) The Commissioners may from time to time make byelaws for the revocation of byelaws made under the 1951 Order in accordance with the procedure set out in this article rather than the procedure to which those previously made byelaws were subject.

(2) Byelaws made under this article must be made under the common seal of the Commissioners, and shall not have effect until the requirements of this article have been satisfied.

(3) Upon the byelaws having been made, notice of the same must be given in one or more local newspapers circulating in the area to which the byelaws apply.

(6) A copy of the byelaws, when confirmed by the Commissioners, must be printed and deposited at the offices of the Commissioners, and must at all reasonable hours be open for public inspection without payment.
